

Matthew 10:26-33

In this gospel we are invited by Christ to be open and fearless in our faith. It is not enough for us to hide our faith within ourselves. Our faith needs to be something that can be carried with pride. It is something that has to be visible through our acts of love and our openness.

It is easy to hide within ourselves for fear of what others may think of us, but Jesus called his disciples to be open and inviting whenever possible. As Jesus says; 'What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the roofs'.

Ultimately we are reminded that these fears are unimportant in the grand scheme of things. This is a freeing reminder and it in turn makes it easier for us to be open in what we believe in.
