

Motivation for Mt 5:17-37

The gospel speaks to us about choice. How do I live my Christian life? How do I choose God? Do I choose God? The Word, Jesus Christ, is a person and calls us this Sunday to go deeper. Allow the Word to examine your deepest self, listen to Him. What does He say to you? It might be very different from what you are expecting. He has given you freedom, you are His child. How do you discover that freedom? Where in your life is He calling you to be free? What does it mean for you today to discover that freedom?